AFFAIRS IN BROOKLYN.

TO TRY TO OVERTHROW THE RING'S POWER.

THE CITIZENS' UNION TO SEND OUT ANOTHER

ADDRESS-NO "MUSHY" MAN WANTED

FOR MAYOR The Citizens' Union, an independent political organization in Brooklyn, composed chiefly of which organized a Provisional Comnittee last spring and sent out a circular to voters, W. Hinrichs is William G. Low is treasurer, and C. O'C Hennessey is secretary of the body. Among the on, C. C. Adams, W. P. Ferguson, A. L. Sessions, H. G. Seaver, the Rev. Dr. R. R. Meredith, C. A. Haviland, Dr. W. E. Spencer, Sanders Shanks, George White, M. W. Hart and John Filmer.

Meredith, pastor of the Tompkins Avenue Congregational Church, who is one of the co nittee, said yesterday that while he was a Republican in National and State questions, he the man rather than the party in local matters. What Brooklyn now needed, he said, was a change of administration. Municipal affairs should be conflucted on business principles. He proposed to ill in his power to elect a man independent of "ring" control-a sturdy, honest business man, with the backbone to do his duty honestly. In regard to Mayor Boody he said: "While his honesty and egrity may not be questioned, he is mushy, Of he never stole anything himself, and clean, upright life, but as for backbone, he You can see it in every only a grown-up baby. line of his good-humored face. I do not think the crats will renominate him. But I hope they If the Republicans nominate a good man and the independents indorse him, or vice versa, the battle can be won. The man's party need not be considered, but his principles must be. A man is wanted who cannot be owned by any one, a man who will be ruled by a platform of business methods. I believe the Republicans will find such a man. Their numbers entitle them to the nomination, as the independents are few. A clean, strongheaded man will be nominated and elected."

HOW MONEY WAS SPENT IN FLATLANDS. commission composed of Charles J. Patter-Nelson J. Carman and Albert Josephson, appointed several months ago to investigate the management of the financial affairs of the town of Flatlands, presented its report yesterday. They find that, although "considerable sums of money were expended without warrant of law, only $100 89 was This was received by Joseph G. Morrell, clerk of the School Board, as discounts Baisley took $668 80 out of the town funds in 1890, 1891 and 1892 to defray the expenses of trips which nade to Albany; that $50 was illegally paid to him for preparing a bill for legislative action af fecting the town; that he took $50 illegally from the town funds to pay for pier building; and that he paid a bill for $174 to Justice Matthews which had ot been properly audited. The report also finds that $924 was illegally paid to Justices Matthews nd Wilson at various times for serving on a committee to confer with the Legislature; that illegal bills for 190 have been paid for interpreters' services, and that the town has been illegally charged with payment of bills for services of justices, which were properly chargeable upon the county. The expenses of the investigation, the report holds, should be charged to the men responsible for the llegal expenditures.

GATHERED ABOUT THE TOWN.

Judge Pratt has appointed John L. Hill the ref-eree to take testimony in the suit of the Atlantic Avenue Railroad Company to recover $82,000 from the Long Island Railroad Company. This sum. it is alleged, is due in percentages upon express charges, commutation tickets and through fares for passen gers on the portion of the road run by the latter company over tracks owned by the former.

The public-school teachers are paid for June, July nd August on June 30 and this year checks were given to them on the Commercial Bank. The rule of the Board of Education is that all such checks must be deposited in five days, but some of the teachers failed to do this. The bank suspended on August 12 and the unpaid checks will not be honored less the bank resumes or the depositors are paid

Dr. W. E. Sylvester, medical superintendent of the County Insane Asylum, reported to the Comthat the assistant physicians, Waldron and Porter, who were charged with desecrating a corpse, had handed in their resignations and admitted their guilt. Dr. Sylvester said that he would have dismissed them at once if they had not resigned, as such conduct as theirs would not be tolerated.
